May Newsletter

What a busy half term it's been! Only this week alone we have been at the football competition for both girls and boys, held a transition session in school for our Year 6s who are feeding to Anthony Gell, been out to Forest School and enjoyed playing brass music.

I am very pleased with the maturity which the Y6s showed in completing their SATs tests last week. None were at all fazed and we look forward to the results on Tuesday 9 July, where I am sure they will have done us and themselves proud.

As we move into the final half term please be aware that it is Derbyshire and national policy that if you take your child out for more than 10 sessions (5 days) over a 10 week period and your child is of school age then I am obligated to let the local authority know, who will consider a fine. If you are wishing to remove your child from school please complete one of the forms, available on the website or from the office in person, at least 3 weeks in advance of the intended departure. Certain activities, like family funerals, will be always approved, but absences for the purposes of leisure cannot be approved.

Enjoy the half term break and I am looking forward to seeing everyone back on Monday 2 June.

Kind regards,
Mr Wilson

Meet Mrs Fearn

I have worked in education for forty-two years, with the last eight years being spent at Cromford.

After twenty-eight years as Akela of a local Cub Pack, I have finally hung up my woggle! During this time, I have met Bear Grylls several times and had the pleasure of travelling from Chatsworth to London via helicopter to deliver a card to the Queen Mother.

My grown-up children both live in Leicester.

I am a member of the Tuneless Choir, which I love and at the weekend you will find me in my garden.
